Why you benefit

- Our financial standing gives you the assurance you need in partner selection
- We provide the financial transparency of a publicly-trade company
- Our access to surety ensures the resources to execute projects

A Strong Foundation

Financial stability has never had more importance. Your success depends on the ability of your partners to deliver on their commitments. IES has placed a special emphasis on building financial resources you can rely on.

As a NASDAQ-listed company in good standing, our financial performance on diverse projects nationwide has allowed us to secure one of the largest surety and co-surety agreements in the country. Our safety record, outperforming the industry average by 44%, provides access to preferred insurance rates. And our deep industry experience, working with clients of all sizes, led us to revenues totaling over $800 million in 2008.

With significant investments in people, systems and processes, IES is cultivating the industry's most capable and reliable workforce. We have developed the industry's leading safety program, a custom-designed and proprietary project management process and secured bonding capacity that gives our customers the peace of mind that comes from working with an industry leader. IES has the resources to ensure the flawless execution of your project.
